

Tony Aspler is Made a Member of the Order of Canada

On Friday, December 28, it was announced that Tony Aspler was appointed to the Order of Canada as a Member (see the press release at www.gg.ca). The citation reads: "For his contributions as a leading authority on Canadian wines who has been key to the development of the Canadian wine industry."

The appointments were actually made on October 25. Tony formally received the insignia at a ceremony in April 2008.
